

Recommended Reading

The Butterfly Defect, Goldin, I. And Mariathanan

Wonderful read on understanding the systemic risks brought on by globalization and practical guidelines to be better prepared

Why Some Companies Emerge Stronger And Better From A Crisis, Mitroff

Self explanatory

Managing Crises – Rosenthal

Predictable Surprises, Bazerman & Watkins

Scenarios, Van Der Heijden

The art and power of scenario planning, articulated here by a Shell executive

IABC Handbook Of Organizational Communication

A Bible on organisational communication, including crisis communication.

Crisis Communication, Zaremba

Effective Risk Management, Edmund H Conrow

Quite academic, but necessary for anyone wanting to understand and apply risk management in their organisation

Strength-Based Leadership, Tom Rath & Barry Conchie

The Politics Of Crisis Management, Boin, T Hart, Stern & Sundelius

Leadership, Giuliani

Whether you agree with his politics, Giuliani was there and has much to share with anyone seeking to understand leadership under pressure

When the Headline Is YOU: An Insider's Guide to Handling the Media, Jeff Ansell

Great read on managing the media in crisis by a very experienced professional

Man's Search for Meaning, Dr. Viktor Frankel

About sense making and finding purpose in chaos

Crisis Management – Tales from the Front Line, Caroline Sapriel & Dirk Lenaerts - 2013

<http://amzn.to/1Pj8FEQ>

<http://apple.co/1OWeKcn>

25 Years of Crises in Review: The Good, The Bad and The Truly Ugly, Caroline Sapriel & Dirk Lenaerts 2016

<http://amzn.to/1XSViRd>

<http://apple.co/1QMVORt>

Happy Reading!

Caroline Sapriel
Managing Partner
CS&A International